

International Short Film Festival of Cyprus:

The celebration of great short films closes this Friday

The International Short Film Festival of Cyprus continues throughout this week and will conclude on Friday, October 17th, at the Rialto Theatre, following its spectacular opening last Saturday.

The Festival attracted a wide audience on the opening night, who came to watch the breathtaking 3D Mapping projection, which took place onto the building of the theatre and marked the opening of this year's edition. Hundreds of spectators continue to celebrate cinema and the short film by watching a great line-up of national and international shorts in the competition section and the parallel tributes, presented throughout the festival every night.

The Festival will conclude on Friday, October 17th with the final screenings and the award ceremony, presented to films competing in the national and international programme. Moreover, a unique surprise is being prepared for the audience during the closing ceremony.

The following awards will be delivered to winning films and filmmakers: 1st Prize for Best Short Film, Best Director Award, 2nd Prize for Best Short Film, 1st Prize for Best National Film, 2nd Prize for Best National Film, Best Documentary Award, Student Jury Award. Moreover, Green Olive films and Sklavis Film Lab are sponsoring:

- Special Editing Award by Sklavis Film Lab (Post Production color correction and DCP in High Definition suite)
- Best Directing Award (Post production Services) by Green Olive Films
- Best Cinematography (Color Grading Services) by Green Olive Films

CUT university students will vote for and award the best music video in the parallel programme 'Amaze me!'

The Festival will wrap up with a party and DJ session at the Heroes's Square.

All films are screened in their original dialogues with Greek and English subtitles.
