5th International Short Film Festival of Cyprus
Tribute to three-dimensional cinema

The 5th International Short Film Festival of Cyprus showcases a tribute to three-dimensional cinema through a 3D programme of screenings and a masterclass.

«ISFFC goes 3D»: Screenings of 3D short films
21/10 7p.m. @RIO Cinema (2), Limassol

This year the ISFFC goes 3D, focusing on the new tendency in cinema making. For the first time in Cyprus, we will have the chance to enjoy short films that explore 3D. The Festival will give out 3D glasses, inviting everyone to a unique three dimensional one hour experience, curated by Björn Speidel, Filminstitut, UdK-Berlin. The screening will take place at Rio Cinema, Limassol, on October 21st, 7p.m..

In this programme of screenings, short films will bring out various perspectives of three – D cinema. According to the curator of the programme, , the films will put a spotlight on possible horizons of 3D-cinema. More precisely, he considers the possibilities of stereoscopic 3D in film to be as powerful as those of sound and colour.

3D Masterclass: «1+1 = 3»

22/10 7p.m. @Rialto Cafe Bar

German filmmaker and curator Bjorn Speidel will deliver a masterclass on the three-dimensional technique and artistic approach. The masterclass will be open to the public, with free entrance. Its title is 1+1=3. «The technology of stereoscopy is older than cinema but in artistic terms it has just begun. What is there to come?» wonders Speidel.
